STATE CONVENTION.

WEDNESDAY, Oct 4, 1865.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock, a m.

Prayer by the Rev. D. B. Nicholson, of the Methodist church.

The journal of Tuesday was read and approved.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Mr. Clark's resolution empowering the President of the Convention to admit reporters not exceeding five in number, and assign them seats in the hall, was read.

Mr. Settle moved to amend by striking out the words "five in number."

Mr. Clark disclaimed any intention to limit the number of reporters, but to leave the matter at the discretion of the President, where it properly belonged.

Mr Donnell presented the following as an amendment to the amendment, which, Mr. Settle's motion being withdrawn, was agreed to:

Resolved, That stenographers wishing to take down debates, shall be admitted at the discretion of the President, who shall assign them such places on the floor, or elsewhere, to effect their object, as shall not interfere with the Convention.

Mr. King's resolution authorising the purchase of a National flag to be raised over the Capitol, was adopted.

Mr. Logan's resolution fixing the hours of meeting and adjournment was, on motion of Mr. Donnell, laid on the table.

Mr. Donnell thought the arranging of these hours at this time premature.

Mr. Conigland's resolution asking information of the Governor in regard to the specie value of bonds and notes, was laid on the table on motion of Mr. Grissom.

Mr. Conigland explained his motive for the introduction of the resolution, expressing his unqualified opposition to the assumption by the State of any part of the debt contracted in aid of the late rebellion.

Mr. Moore, from the committee on subjects for the consideration of the Convention, reported as follows:

The committee appointed to report the subject matters proper for the action of the Convention and the number of committees necessary for the proper disposition of the same, have had the same under consideration and respectfully report

It appears to your committee that the business proper for the Convention will be most conveniently brought before the Convention under the heads of the following resolutions which are reported simply as a plan of operations and not as indicating an opinion on the merits of any of the resolutions:

Resolved. By the delegates in Convention assembled, that a committee be appointed consisting of two members from each judicial district, to enquire into the propriety of limiting the number of Justices of the Peace for each county, and the most efficient mode of doing the same, and if they shall be of opinion that the number ought to be limited, to report an ordinance to that effect.

Resolved, Further, that a committee be appointed to revise the Constitution of the State by collecting together and arranging, under articles, sections and clauses all such parts as belong to the same subject matter, with such changes in the language as are made necessary by the amendments adopted at various times, omitting all such parts as are obsolete or conflict with the Constitution of the United States, presenting the constitution as one instrument without any essential change in substance.

Resolved, That a Committee of eleven be appointed to report the proper action of the Convention in reference to the Secession Ordinance of 20th May 1861.

Resolved, That a Committee of eleven be appointed to report the proper action of the Convention in reference to the abolition of slavery.

Resolved That a Committee of two from each present Congressional District be appointed whose duty it shall be to lay off the State into seven Congressional Districts.

Resolved That a Committee of eleven be appointed whose duty it shall be to report what acts of the Convention, the Legislature, and the Courts, since 20th May 1861 shall be declared in force by this Convention.

Resolved, That a Committee of two from each Congressional District as now constituted be appointed, to whom shall be referred all amendments to the Constitution not otherwise referred.

Mr Phillips moved that the rules be suspended so that the report might be considered to day. Agreed to and the report was adopted

Mr. Jackson of Randolph, presented a resolution asking information of the Governor in regard to the state war debt. (The Reporter would here remark that resolutions will be published in full when they come up for action. As they lie over one day and for the rule, that prevents us from repetition.)

ORDINANCES.

Mr. Moore of Wake, an ordinance in relation to the election and qualifications of members of the General Assembly.

Mr Boyden moved a suspension of the rules, and that the ordinance be acted upon.

Mr. Pool was not prepared to vote on the question without further examination into several provisions of the ordinance

Mr Barton deprecated such hasty legislation, and moved to lay Mr. Boyden's motion on the table. Agreed to and the ordinance lies over.

Mr. Manly an Ordinance in regard to the authentication of ordinance and other acts of the Convention.

Mr Jones of Rowan an ordinance providing for the election of municipal officers in the State at an early day (Designates Thursday the 19th of Oct.) as the day of election.

Mr Jones of Rowan, an ordinance to repeal the ordinance of secession passed by the Convention of 1861

WHEREAS, A Convention of the people of North Carolina did on the 20th day of May 1861, pass an ordinance professing in terms, to repeal the ordinance of 1787 and to sever the legal connection existing between the state of North Carolina and the General Union, commonly called the Ordinance of Secession; and, whereas while this Convention does not in any manner endorse the theory of secession yet, a due respect to the opinions of so many of our fellow citizens who did, and in order to leave no impediment in the way of a cordial rehabilitation of the State, render the repeal of the aforesaid so called Ordinance of Secession if not necessary, at least expedient and proper. Therefore be it ordained by the Delegates of this Convention, in convention assembled and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, that the aforesaid ordinance, ratified the 20th of May 1861, be and the same is hereby repealed

The chair announced the following as the committee on the ordinance of secession:

Messrs. Boyden, Warren, Brooks, Logan, Brown, Nicholson, Grissom, Starbuck, Rumley Perry and Patterson.

Mr Boyden requested permission for the committe to retire at once in order to be enabled to report at an early hour.

No objection being raised the committee retired.

The following was announced as the committee on the abolition of slavery:

Messrs. Settle, Henry of Macon, Conigland, Howard, Norfleet, Burgin, Jackson, Donnell, Russell, Stewart and Faircloth.

Mr Love, a resolution declaring North Carolina, in the Union, affirming the abolition of slavery, and providing for the election of a Lieut. Governor, and declaring the white basis of representation.

The following delegates compose the committee on the revision of the constitution:

Messrs. Moore, of Wake, Wm. Eaton, Jr., Thompson, Caldwell of Burk, and McCorkle.

Mr. Boyden from the committee on secession, presented the following ordinances as the report of the committee.

AN ORDINANCE DECLARING NULL AND VOID THE ORDINANCE OF MAY 20TH, 1861.

Be it declared and ordained by the delegates of the good people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained, that the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the 21st day of November 1789, which adopted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, is now and at all times since the adoption and ratification thereof, hath been in full force and effect, notwithstanding the supposed ordinance of the 20th day of May 1861, declaring that the same be repealed, rescinded and abrogated, and the said supposed ordinance is now and at all times hath been, null and void.

Mr Smith, of Johnston, moved a suspension of the rules and that the ordinance be put upon its several readings.

Mr. Manly said he hoped the rules would not be suspended. Time should be given for reflection when matters of so much importance were under consideration, and they should not be passed upon without mature deliberation. He expressed an intention to offer a substitute modifying parts of the ordinance, and moved to lay Mr. Smith's motion on the table.

Mr. Brown also opposed the suspension on the ground that sufficient time should be given for consideration.

Mr. Phillips remarked that the adoption of this motion would also table the ordinance.

Mr. Manly withdrew his motion.

Mr. Smith withdrew his motion to suspend the rules and the ordinance lies over.

The Committee on General Amnesty consists of the following delegates:

Messrs. Gilliam, Caldwell, of Guilford; Clarke, Cowper, Forches, Gahagan, Henrahan, Jarvis Jones, of Rowan; Leak, and Love, of Jackson.

On motion the Convention adjourned till Thursday 11 o'clock.

WELL SAID.—The Asheville News says, editorially:

It is greatly to be hoped that henceforth North Carolina may be free from that fierce partisan spirit which, in former times, contributed so much to retard her material prosperity and advancement. That there will be differences of opinion as to any line of policy, is to be expected; and if confined within proper bounds, we do not know that it is objectionable. But that fierce, relentless, proscriptive spirit, that would make everything, even the public good, bow at the shrine of party, is to be feared and execrated. The public good, before private ends, is a most wholesome political axiom; and if this spirit actuated all, what a glorious country we should have! Hence forth let every true son of North Carolina feel that his best efforts are due to his State, that her boundless resources may be developed—her internal improvements pushed, and her people take the high and enviable position the God of nature designed them to occupy. The grand old North State is eminently worthy of the love and labor of all her sons. Let those who will, seek homes and fortunes elsewhere; but let those who love her, remain, and seek to build up and strengthen, beautify and adorn our own loved commonwealth. A liberal system of internal improvements—a wide-reaching educational influence, and the proper moral culture, will, in a few years, make North Carolina truly the paradise of the earth. Her people are law-abiding, sober, upright and honest—proverbially so. Let these traits in their character be assiduously cultivated and developed, and every man feel that upon him individually rests the responsibility of maintaining and upholding the civil institutions of the State. Eschew partisan politics, and work for the good and glory of our noble old State, and you will leave an inheritance of priceless value to your children and your children's children.

A terrible case of human death from cattle plague has occurred in England, at Southery, in Suffolk. Mr. Robert John Plumby, a veterinary surgeon of that town, made a partial post mortem examination of the carcass of a cow which had been shot in consequence of being afflicted with the prevailing disease. In doing so his shirt sleeves became saturated with blood. He went home, was taken ill, and died at the end of three days. His body presented all the appearance of death from putrid fever and mortification. It is supposed that some of the virus of the diseased beast entered his system through a boil he had on his arm. A short time ago another veterinary surgeon died from the bite of a carrion fly.

Wm. Stark, of Manchester, N. H., received by the ship Golconda, which arrived at Boston on Monday, from Calcutta, a white sacred Brahim cow, a lot of Patnah goats, some Hindoo sheep, several Ganges geese, and some East Indian deer. They are designed for his park in Manchester, on the Merrimack, where he has the largest private collection of rare animals and birds in the United States.

Quite a number of commissioned officers of volunteers under the rank of Colonel, now employed on staff and temporary light duty, would cheerfully resign their commissions and retire to civil life, but by so doing they forfeit the three months' pay awarded to officers when mustered out, which is not given to resigned officers.

Miss Augusta St. Clair, "a petite young lady, scarcely twenty," has been lecturing on Marriage and Female Education in Cleveland. The Plain dealer says the lecture was "all very fine in theory, but sadly deficient in practice." "When you come to be married Sammy" said the elder Mr. Weller, "you'll know a good many things as you don't know now."

Fanny Fern, in the New York Ledger, says she is not six feet high; she belongs to no woman's rights convention; she is just a little woman, four feet in stature who would much rather love than hat everything and everybody in this lovely world; who had much rather have friends than enemies if she could without muzzling her thoughts or her pen.

Two blatant rebs Kentuckians have got themselves into a difficulty in New York. On a Hudson river steamer they offensively avowed themselves rebels, and one of them finally got into a difficulty with a waiter and stabbed him. They were both arrested when the boat arrived in New York.

Miramon, the Mexican General, is now traveling in Europe, and has recently arrived at Berlin. He look like a dashing, reckless soldier, who could never be depended upon by his superiors, though they could not fail to appreciate his prowess in the field His bearing is very gentlemanly, and will, no doubt, gain him excess to European society particularly as his wife is an elegant and cultivated lady.

A correspondent writes from Charleston that the Mercury is shortly to be reestablished under the auspices of its former proprietor, R. B Rhett, Jr. A good deal of curiosity is felt to know what will be its particular line of politics and doctrines to be advocated It is reported that the editor has already taken grounds against the adoption by the State Convention of the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery. An opposition paper, called the Independent African to be published by T. Hurley and John Bonam, the former a white man and the latter colored, is announced to appear almost at the same time as the Mercury. The proprietors have issued their circular and caused considerable of a sensation, some of our more fiery tempered youths having resolved that it shall never have any other than a feeble and short lived existence.

The Portland (Me.) Press proposes to have subscriptions opened for an Atlantic cable from that city to the Cape of Good Hope, the subscriptions to be paid as soon as the cable is laid in good working order.

Pithole, the great oil city in Pennsylvania, was thus named in consequence of an extraordinary pit or cavern that exists about three miles from the city. In this pit stones are thrown, but they are never heard to drop. Its depth has not yet been fathomed.

J. D. Palmer has received his commission and entered upon the discharge of the duties of Postmaster at Wilmington.

The office of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad, at Pittsburg, was robbed of $35,000 on Friday last. It was stolen from a safe, evidently by some one who had access to it.

A locomotive on the Northwestern Railroad exploded at Chicago, Saturday, killing the engineer and a woman named Mrs. Dyer. Several other persons were injured—one fatally.

The Charleston Courier of the 19th of September contains Article I ("Declaration of Right") of the draft of the new State Constitution, which has been laid before the Convention of South Carolina. As has already been announced by telegraph, it abolishes Slavery and involuntary servitude. The other sections contain nothing that materially differs from the Constitution of other States. Section 9 provides that liberty of the press shall be forever inviolably preserved.

The official report of the famous standstill race between the Winooski and the Algonquin, states that the economical performance of each vessel was equal, that the arrangement of the Winooski's machinery is the simplest and most convenient possible, and its economy of fuel equal to that given by the very complex design of the Algonquin. The Navy Department expresses its determination to continue the dock trial until the test has been completed, as required by the contract, or Mr. Dickinson admits his inability to complete it. As soon as the Algonquin is ready the test will be resumed

A correspondent in the oil regions has visited Miller Farm. He says: I observed a small building standing near the depot, evidently run as a hotel for on a board politely suspended from the front of the domicil, were the significant words, embodying both a cognomen and an invitation:—"Dew Drop Inn" But I didn't go in. The fact is, I didn't have time. But I am sure the landlord, whose name is Dood, is a Yankee and a genius.

A Missouri man went to the war, leaving a wife and two children. He was given up for dead, and his supposed widow became a wife and a mother again. The first husband lately returned safe and sound; the two husbands and the double wife calmly talked the matter over, and it was left for the women to decide whose wife she would be. She chose her first love, and her "Philip Rey" took his children, made his wife good-bye and started for the South. No romance in that, but a good deal of reality.

The amount of the Twenty Year Loan authorized by Congress was $200,000,000. Of this $174,000,000 was issued, when operations in connection with the loan were discontinued. It is now thought probable that Secretary McCulloch will soon place the remaining $27,000,000 on the market.

THE CITY.

CORTON BOOTT.—A car of cotton belonging to a Mr Warfield, containing thirty six bales, was burnt at the N. C. depot yesterday morning. The cotton caught from a spark from the engine, and the wind being pretty high, the flames baffled entirely the efforts of the railroad employees to extinguish them. The truck was turned and the car trambled at full speed down the embankment Other cotton in the yard caught, but all but about four bales were saved by the indefatigable exertions of Capt Hodge and his subordinates.

Nobody can be blamed but the aforesaid sparks, and too much credit cannot be given Mr. Miner, agent of the U. S. military railroad, and Mr. Pryor, of the quartermaster's department for their untiring exertions in behalf of Mr Warfield's interests.

J. M., the philosopher and dean of much speaking, did not appear as announced, last night on account of the eclipse of the moon or from some other cause, but says he will orate at the capitol to-night.

He wants citizens to attend and take their fun there, which they can do if they choose, but if so it must be on their responsibility and not ours. His talk is to be on the war, of which we have heard a good deal heretofore ACCIDENT.—A. M. Murray, connected with the Military railroad between Raleigh and Newbern, was accidentally killed in Newbern Tuesday morning, by being crushed between two cars. He was in Raleigh on Sunday, and left here on Monday morning.

Hon. W. R. Bridgers, President of the W. & W. Railroad, was in the city yesterday. We were pleased to learn from him that trains would run over the whole length of his road in a few days. He is now making through trips, but some bridges are to be finished before the track is complete.

HAVE not referred to the almanac and know not what it says of the event, but there was an eclipse of the moon at an early hour last night, visible to the naked eye. It was visible when the moon just appeared and lasted some two hours, a small portion of the disk only being obscured.

THAT'S WHAT'S THE MATTER!—The inimitable Billy Vaughan, with his far-famed opera troupe, is in town.—They performed last night in the Market Hall, giving unqualified satisfaction to admirers of the "light fantastic toe," and eliciting heavy applause by their laughable delineations of negro character. They perform again to-night. Go and see them.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

THURSDAY, OCT. 5, 1865.

The Convention.

The committee to prepare business for the Convention made a report yesterday, and several other committees were appointed. The report of the committee on secession, of which Mr. Boyden was chairman, reported, when a suspension of the rules was moved, and then it was that the real division into parties, which will ultimately be developed, began to show itself. The report was right enough but cannot be swallowed all at once by some of those gentlemen who still maintain that the cause of secession was a holy cause.

The day passed without anything being matured, and the session may stretch to a month or six weeks, from present appearances. Those who could change the relation of the people to the government, in a day, in 1861, are oppsed to hasty action now. Of course. As compared with the Convention of 1861, the present is a funeral ceremony, and the former a marriage feast. If the members are ashamed of what they are doing it is a pity but what others had been selected for the work. We fear there are too many men in the body who want to save southern honor, as connected with the rebellion. Better make a clean breast of it, and do it quickly. That the signs are altogether what they could be wished, no man, we think, will say. So far, actually, nothing has been perfected by the Convention.

"Slavery formerly constituted both the labor and the capital of the South. Labor properly directed always constitutes capital. But these being gone, what is our hope for the future? We say gone, for the reason that up to the present, no advance has been made in inducing the colored population at large to return to labor for wages. If this state of things cannot be remedied, what is to be done?"—Sentinel.

The charge here made against the blacks is not sustained by the facts. We know that some of them are indolent and worthless, and seem to expect to consume withou work; but it by no means applies to all. We have six or seven in our employ, all of whom labor quite as faithfully as when they were slaves, and we must say they discharge their duties much more cheerfully. We pay them their wages, however, promptly, and we suppose that has much to do with it; and in this they are very much like the whites, for we cannot get them to work unless we pay them.

From our experience and observation we believe that any farmer who will treat the blacks kindly, justly, and pay them promptly, can get as many laborers as he wants; and we have not a doubt but more will be produced, by good management, under the free labor system, than was under the old slave system. All this talk about imporsing white laborers from the North and from Europe arises from an unjustifiable prejudice against the negro and an indisposition to pay him for his labor and do him justice.

One of the best farmers of Wake county, a man who owned a number of slaves and worked himsel, told us recently that he had made a better crop the present season with hired freedmen than he had ever raised on his farm; and we assume that it is in accordance with common sense and sound philosophy that if one can make the free labor efficient, all can do it. All that is necessary is for those who want the laborers to throw aside prejudices against the negro because he is free, and manage with p udence and discretion.

Our cotemporary takes a gloomy view of the future because the negro refuses to enter into contracts for the next year, and asks "if this state of things cannot be remedied, what is to be done?" Simple enough. Let the whites go to work. White men can no more consume without producing than can the negroes. Why import Irish or Dutch to labor here when we have hundreds of thousands of poor whites of our own that must work or starve? Much is said about the vagrancy of the negroes, and we could wish there was less of it; but what of the whites?

There should be rigid vagrant laws to prevent idleness, lewdness and lawlessness among the blacks, but the same laws should apply to, and be as rigidly enforced against, the whites. There is a brigade of this class about town; they consume without producing, and yet if they pay tax upon any property no one knows it. Why does not some philanthropic patriot propose to pick up these drones and put them to work? People who own property, who labor and pay tax, don't want to be taxed to support vagrants of any color, black or white; and it is as incumbent on one as the other. And who makes so much fuss about the negroes as those very drones and vagrants who hug the street corners, lounge around dram shops and trust to chance for food and raiment. We trust our law-makers will do all in their power to compel the freedmen to work for an honest living, but we consider it equally incumbent on them to take steps to reduce the amount of vagrancy among the whites. Society has a right to demand that all persons, regardless of color, show that they have a legitimate means of support.

The President recently said to an eminent man that, in the event of a reorganization of his Cabinet, he should not object to the selection of a thorough Southern man, believing it would strengthen the general desire for conciliation.

"Hard pressed as he will find himself to meeting the liabilities of the State, Jonathan Worth will be slow to listen to the plea of repudiation."—Sentinel.

[illegible] to repudiate any legitimate or honest debt? We all agree that the State debt that existed before the war must be paid, and that the State must pay its proportion of the national debt; but does the Sentinel propose that Mr. Worth, State Treasurer, should pay the rebel debt? Are the people, now that their shackles have been removed and they are once more free, to be taxed to pay debts created by traitors for the prosecution of a treasonable rebellion against rightful authority? Is it proposed to pay the twenty millions or upwards of State debt created to assist Jefferson Davis in his treasonable efforts to overthrow and destroy the government from which we are now seeking favors and whose protection we ary trying to secure?

No, all this is the old leaven of secession, and should disaffection and treason prevail, and the present Convention or the Legislature hereafter to assemble assume the payment of State and County bonds issued for the prosecution of the war, we trust the government will protect this people by refusing the State admission until such time as reason shall return to those who are chosen to represent them. And we have an abiding faith that such will be the course pursued by the government. No State whose Convention assumes and promises to pay the rebel debt will be admitted to the Union, and should not be.

Alabama and South Carolina have finally disposed of this question by their Conventions, and we call upon the North Carolina Convention to do the same. No loyal man proposes to repudiate any honest debt of the State, but no loyal man feels under any obligation to assume the payment of the Confederate bonds issued by Jefferson Davis, the State bonds issued by rebel Legislatures and Conventions to carry on the war, or the blockade bills of Zebulon B. Vance contracted for the benefit of himself and his stallfederate associates. Why is the present Convention, if a loyal body, under any more obligations to redeem the bonds issued by the Convention of 1861, to buy arms to make war on the government, than it is to make good the ordinance of secession passed by the same body? Why are we to recognise one act of treason and repudiate another? If we repudiate the ordinance of secession, and say before the world that North Carolina has not been out of the Union, why recognise that other act by which the same body issued bonds to buy arms and ammunition and assume their payment?

We tell the delegates to the State Convention that if they attempt to saddle the people of the State with the payment of these illegitimate, treasonable debts, many of the best men in the country will urge the government not to admit the State to the Union until such action shall be reversed.

The blacks are terribly oppressed in Connecticut, the State having just decided, by a majority of six thousand, not to allow them to vote. When all the States where slavery did not exist before the war shall adopt universal suffrage, those people can appeal to us down south with some show of consistency to grant the blacks the boon they ask. The blacks of Connecticut should call a State Convention immediately, to agitate the question of their rights.

We agree with the Standard that the property qualifications required to enable a man to hold a seat in the General Assembly is odious, and we hope the Convention will strike it out. The man who is qualified to vote should be qualified to hold the office, provided the majority of the people should express in his favor.

Harriet Martineau, now in her sixty-fourth year, continues to be the most active and able contributor of the London Daily News, and other publications, and the last two volumes of her History of England during the great peace are in press. The activity of this lady is unparalelled in the annals of literature, particularly as she is nearly as blind as Milton was, and also totally deaf.

The Empress Charlotte of Mexico is expected to arrive at Brussels at the end of this month, on a visit to her father, King Leopold, and the probability is that she will never again return to Mexico. Maximilian's anxiety to enjoy the society of his accomplished wife will give him an excellent opportunity to make his exit from his false position upon "domestic" grounds.

Governor Hamilton, of Texa, has recently issued a proclamation ordering the assessment of a direct ad valorem tax of twelve-and-a-half cents upon each hundred dollars value of property, real and personal except such property as may be exempt from taxation by the laws in force prior to the 21 day of March, A. D. 1861. He also orders an assessment of a poll tax of one dollar for each voter, license and occupation taxes under the laws prior to 1861.

Late Houston papers report a public meeting at Hamstead, Texas, in which three of the richest counties of the State were represented. Resolutions were passed accepting the situation, expressing an earnest desire to co-operate in the President's and and Governor's plans for the reorganization of the State, urging the people to qualify themselves at once as voters, and soliciting the Governor to call a convention for the restoration of civil authority at the earliest practicable period.

A young lady in Newport, R. I., who had been courted and deserted, recently presented the faithless object of her affections, receiving $1000 damages, but not content with this, upon encountering the young man on the street, a short time afterwards, she administered to him a severe cowhiding. She was arrested for the assault, fined ten dollars, and ordered to leave the city to avoid further collision.

The quickest trip ever made from Portland was by the New York, in six days, seven hours and twenty minutes. The passengers gave the Captain $500.

Mr. Grinnell has received a letter from Capt. Hall, of the Arctic Expedition, written on the 10th of last December, in which the writer states that he has obtained from the Esquimaux much valuable information among other things that Hall [illegible] that he had found out evidence to show decisively that Capt. Richard Crozier, who [illegible] and two of his men, were in communication with the natives, and that Crozier's life was saved by the judicious eating of a native. This native says Crozier was almost starved, but the other men were fat and strong, they having eaten human flesh, which Crozier would not do. It would seem that these men lived for a long time with the natives on Boothia Felix Peninsula, but finally went away to the south in a boat, as that is all the Esquimaux appear to know of them. Sir John Franklin's ships were last seen on the 6th of July, 1845, in the ice near the middle of Baffin's Bay.

STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting,
Knitting on the same old stocking, I commenced before the war;
Knitting carefully, I was feeling—when methought I heard one stealing,
Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.

This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking—hastily I dropped my stocking;
Dropped my knitting—the old stocking I commenced before the war.
Again, and louder, came the rapping—as tho' they thought that I was napping;
Me a napping? Knitting, napping? Me who never—"Ope the door."

This the voice said—"Ope the door!!"

"'Tis Sally's voice"—says I—"'tis Sally, and I know she's got some news,
And I'm powerful glad she's come too, for I most did have the blues.
"Sally," says I, "Sally, howdye?" "What's the news? Do have a chair?"
"Glorious news, my Peggy darling—glorious news from Market Square."

"From Shepherd's Store in Market Square."

At Shepherd's Store, they've got new shoes—such bran new, laced up, tasseled beauties.
Morocco, kid, and patent leather—Congress gaiters, toe-tipped bootees.
Balmoral, Prunello and Creole. Mens and womens, boys and girls;
Such a sight it is to behold—they're the cheapest in the world.

The very cheapest in the world.

And Peggy, dear, they've got new hats—military and civilian.
All the style of Frenchy fashion—a la Emp'reur Maximilian.
And I told my husband, Johnny, "throw aside that rusty beaver."
"Go to Shepherd's—market square—get a hat you gay deceiver,

Get a hat, and burn your beaver."

Well, Peg—John went to market square—he's just got back—rigged up so gay,
A bran new suit from top to toe—and cheap as dirt, for ready pay:
And I advise you, Peggy darling—to give what cash you've got to spare,
To your dear Bobby in the morning—and send him straight to Market Square"

To Shepherd's Store, in Market Square.

'I'll do it, Sally dear"—says I—I'll send Bob early in the morn,
I'll send him straight to Shepherd's Store—I will as sure as I am born,
Good-bye, dear Sally! Must you go? Yes—good-bye, Peggy—now take care,
Be sure that Bob finds the right place—'tis SHEPHERD'S STORE, at Market Square.

Shepherd's Store, at Market Square.

We have a fine assortment of Ready-made Clothing—Boots and Shoes—Hats, &c., which we will sell at very low prices.

LOVERS.

They linger in the garden walk,
Talking only as lovers talk,
Sweet, foolish trifles, love's delight!
With joy and faith their faces bright.

Sometimes she stops and plucks a rose,
To hide the truth her sweet blush shows;
Scattering the rose leaves in the air,
A dainty shower o'er face and hair—

With laughing looks she sees them fly,
Then sudden stops and breathes a sigh
For youth and love as soon are gone,
And death and age are hastening on.

He gathers from the garden plot,
A tuft of pale forget me not:
She takes them with a careless jest,
Then hides them in her snowy breast.

He lays a rose bud in her hair,
Whispering she is wond'rous fair;
While tenderly his loving hands
Linger o'er the rippling bands.

They pause to watch the evening sky,
And see the golden sunlight die;
A squirrel startled from its lair
Breaks the calm quiet of the air.

She trifles with her golden curls,
'Till the bright flag the wind unfurls,
And blows a tress across his face—
Tossing his lips with soft embrace.

They reach the great hall door at last,
He holds her slender fingers fast,
Then kisses them, as well he may,
While she, all blushing, speeds away.

Saturday Evening Post.

E DAILY NEWS.—We have read the first number of this newspaper, just started at Goldsboro, Whitaker & Co., publishers, and S. D. Pool, r. It is a neat, spicy sheet, and we wish rs. Whitaker and Pool success. In the first ber the editor gives his position thus:

e editor of this paper having recently occupied the position of an officer in the army of the ederate States, it is fitting that he should ly allude to the past, that his present position be correctly understood, and his future course ated. What he has to say shall be said now. e hopes no necessity shall ever arise to cause o make further public allusion to himself.

That Convention appealed to arms, and called for recruits. He responded that call and for four years, endeavored faithfully and zealously to perform the duties assigned the several positions which he was called o fill. The Confederacy yielding to the powerwhelming numbers, fell to rise no more, vestige of hope having vanished when the nd great Gen. Lee surrendered to Gen.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.
J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.
THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Part Hoop Steel Springs, in continuously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the lightest, most flexible, elastic and durable spring ever used. They seldom break or break, like the single springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and graceful shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.
The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm-Chairs, for Promenade and Home Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.
A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.
The tapes are covered with a ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.
All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.
WEST'S, BRADLEY & CARY, (late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.
For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu.

DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS.

THE Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of a diuretic to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU accomplishes directly. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

in affections peculiar to "Females," is unequaled by any other preparation, as in Obstruction or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulceration or Schirrus State of the Uterus; and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change in life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU
AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH,

Will radically exterminate from the system Diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those nauseous and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury in all these diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

In all Diseases of these organs, whether existing in "Male" or "Female," from whatever cause originating, and no matter how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

I hope suffering from Broken down or Delicate Constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect his Bodily Health, Mental Powers, and Happiness.

All the above diseases require the aid of a diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
Is the great Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,

for purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases, arising from an impure state of the blood and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Ulceration of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin,

AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Not a few of the worst disorders that affect mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body and expells the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit of certificates to show its effects, but the trial of a single bottle will show the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.

Two tablespoonfuls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Lisbon Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as usually made.

THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and also in very general use in all the State HOSPITALS and PUBLIC SANITARY INSTITUTES throughout the land, as well as in private practices, and are considered as invaluable remedies.
